LUXURY HANDMADE FURNITURE & ANTIQUE – INTERIORS DESIGN

INTRO

- ▶ All the products produced by MobiLusso are subjected to scrupulous processing and is followed with great care and attention. Each chair, armchair is the result of a perfect balance of technology and craftsmanship; by the important work of our craftsmen and expert workers ..
- ▶ Wood is dried before use, the wood mostly used is beech wood, The pieces are accurately milled in accordance with the design.
- ▶ The parts that make up the back or the front part of the frame are assembled, glued and correctly fitted; these processes are fundamental for product stability and to produce a long lasting solid structure.
- ▶ Surfaces must be homogenous without granules and the product must be practically flawless, so a great care is taken to obtain the appropriate smoothness to enhance the finishing process.

- ▶ During the assembly phase the stability, levelling and perfect symmetry of the product are carefully checked.
- ▶ Finishing is a necessary operation in order to preserve the wood; lacquering entails the homogenous application, on the entire surface of the product, of "coats" of varnish in the required colour to give luminosity and add decorative effects to the product; it's a variety of finishes, between the antique and modern style.
- ▶ A department of the company is entirely dedicated to "Upholstery", in which the frame is padded and upholstered, Webbing and springs are skilfully fixed by hand to guarantee the best resistance of the seats over time.
- ▶ A great variety of fabrics are available and are continuously updated.
- ▶ A detailed check-up is carried out to check that the quality of the finish, upholstery and frame satisfy the standards required for all MobiLusso products and to make sure that the products meets customer requirements.
